

Rep. Devan Seabaugh
District 34

Biography

Devan Seabaugh was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in a special election in July 2021. He represents House District 34, which includes areas within the cities of Marietta and Kennesaw, as well as areas in unincorporated west Cobb County. House District 34 is home to Kennesaw State University, Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park and Cobb County International Airport. He is currently a member of the Creative Arts & Entertainment, Transportation and Code Enforcement committees.

Rep. Seabaugh is the vice president for MetroAtlanta Ambulance Service, a private ambulance company providing 9-1-1 ambulance service and critical care ambulance service to hospitals throughout the greater Atlanta area. Seabaugh was raised in Marietta and is a graduate of Marietta High School. He received a bachelor's degree in Business Administration at the University of West Georgia, where he served as treasurer of his fraternity, Eta Sigma Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha. He is a licensed Georgia paramedic having worked on the streets of Atlanta for Grady EMS before moving back to Cobb County to help start MetroAtlanta Ambulance Service more than 20 years ago. He and his wife, Beth, reside in Marietta. They have been married for 30 years and have raised five children together. He has been an active volunteer leader throughout the community for several decades.

Rep. Seabaugh is currently serving as a member on the board of directors for WellStar Kennestone Regional Hospital, the Cobb County/North Georgia State Fair Association and the Cobb Travel and Tourism Sports Alliance. He serves in several advisory roles for the Cobb Chamber of Commerce including the Marietta Area Council, Leadership Cobb Alumni Association and Select Cobb. He has served as member of the Bartow, Cobb and Paulding County Chambers of Commerce Government Affairs Committees, as Chairman of WellStar Kennestone Regional Hospital, the WellStar Foundation, MUST Ministries and the Kiwanis Club of Marietta. He has also served on the board of directors for the Boys & Girls Club, YMCA, SafeKids and the Cobb Safety Village.

Another interesting note about Rep. Seabaugh is that he was responsible for bringing All American Soap Box Derby racing back to Marietta in 2004. More than 300 children experienced the thrill of racing Soap Box Derby cars downhill from 2004-2010 with 30 local champions from Georgia who traveled to Akron, OH to compete in the world championship. He is also the founder of the Field of Flags at Kennesaw National Battlefield Park to honor the victims of September 11, 2001. The event was conceived by Seabaugh while he was president of the Marietta Kiwanis Club in 2003 and continues under the organized efforts of the Kiwanis Club of Marietta's Foundation every five years. The event has become one of the largest commemorative 9/11 events in the nation.

Rep. Seabaugh and his family are faithful members of First United Methodist Church in Marietta. He has been recognized by Kiwanis International as the Marietta Citizen of the Year with a George Hixson Fellowship and 25 year Legion of Honor Award. The Cobb Chamber of Commerce has also honored Rep. Seabaugh with the Mack Henderson Public Service Award. Professionally, he has been a member of the National EMS Management Association, Georgia Association of EMS, Kiwanis International, Rotary International, National Rifle Association, National Association of EMTs, Cobb Republican Party and an associate member of the Cobb Republic Women's Association. He reads, plays golf, tennis and pickle ball and enjoys time at lake and at the beach with his family.
